

CATEGORY AND FEE	COMMITMENT	RESEARCH	EDUCATION	EVENTS
PARTNER €11,000 per annum Plus initial in kind contribution Account managed by an EABIS director	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Dean commits to participate in governance as member of Supervisory Board (2 meetings per year) Professor(s) commit time & resources to lead EABIS research projects (commensurate with €100,000 initial investment) and eligibility for governance board Engage faculty and PhD students in EABIS network and events (at least in Colloquium, PhD day and 1 of Network Event) Senior Account Manager (Director)/ Quarterly Call to update on EABIS activities Branding on EABIS publications, website and other marketing material. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Possibility to lead research projects as research partners (e.g. FP7 European funding and EABIS Corporate Funding Programme) Co-Funding available for ad hoc research projects (5 K) from Corporate Founding Partners Create company specific research, including briefing and case studies Receive reports and publications from EABIS projects Receive updates on research funding opportunities in CR issues Receive regular calls for contributions to conferences and related special issues of journals 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Lead in shaping the CR issues / skills being developed in the business curriculum Develop and receive new case studies and teaching materials for CR teaching and training (book, special issue journals and other publications) Commitment to mainstreaming CR into core programmes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Colloquium and Leaders Forum: Key placement and shape agenda; 2 free places (1 free place Leaders Forum). Partners expected to take a leading role and be prepared to host a Colloquium Network events: Shape and input into content and structure; 1 free place Thematic seminars (e.g. Mainstreaming CR in Executive Education, April 2010): Shape and input into content and structure; 1 free place
MEMBER €7,000 per annum Account managed by an EABIS staff member	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Dean commits ongoing ad-hoc support where necessary Lead professor(s) commit 5 days per year for EABIS events, related work, meetings, Colloquium, etc and eligibility for governance board Faculty and PhD students participation is expected (at least in Colloquium, PhD day and 1 of Network Event) Account Manager (Coordinator) / Quarterly Call to update on EABIS activities Branding on EABIS website and other marketing material 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participate in major EABIS Projects Possibility to participate in research projects as research partners (e.g. FP7 European funding and EABIS Corporate Funding Programme) Co-Funding available for ad hoc research projects (5 K) from Corporate Founding Partners. Receive reports and publications from EABIS projects Receive updates on research funding opportunities in CR issues Receive regular calls for contributions to conferences and related special issues journals 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participate in shaping the CR issues / skills being developed in the business curriculum Receive cases and teaching materials on CR (book, special issue journals and other publications) Commitment to mainstreaming CR into core programmes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Colloquium: Participation; 1 free place Network events: Participation; 1 free place Thematic seminars: Participation; 1 free place
For further information on becoming a member, please consult our website, http://www.eabis.org/ Alternatively, contact Dr. Mollie Painter-Morland, our Academic Director mollie.painter@eabis.org / Tel: + 32 (0)2 539 3702				